FOREWORD

As we, the class of 1961, about to enter the ranks of alumni, look back upon the past several years we begin to realize more of what our school days have meant to us. In a degree we appreciate that the training of mind and body afforded us here will serve us well as a foundation upon which to build our future in an unsteady world. We are ready to accept the challenge of responsibility ahead. Let us do so courageously and confidently.

In presenting the 1961 Comet Yearbook, the staff offers the story of an eventful and successful year, filled with work and play. We trust the Comet Yearbook will be treasured in days to come as a reminder of the happy school days in Hicksville High School, and of the opportunity we have had to prepare ourselves to play our part as honorable and useful citizens in this great America of ours.

The editors have endeavored to produce this volume as a fitting tribute to the accomplishments of the class of 1961. We trust that you will enjoy it. As you turn its pages in the future, you will recall the school days of your youth, spent under the guidance of your principal Mr. Galloway, and all your teachers and administrators.

We are all indebted to the boys in our own print shop who, under the direction of Mr. Adams, have produced this book. They have worked with untiring effort and interest and professional skill.

The staff extends sincerest wishes for a successful and satisfying life ahead to every member of the graduating class of 1961.

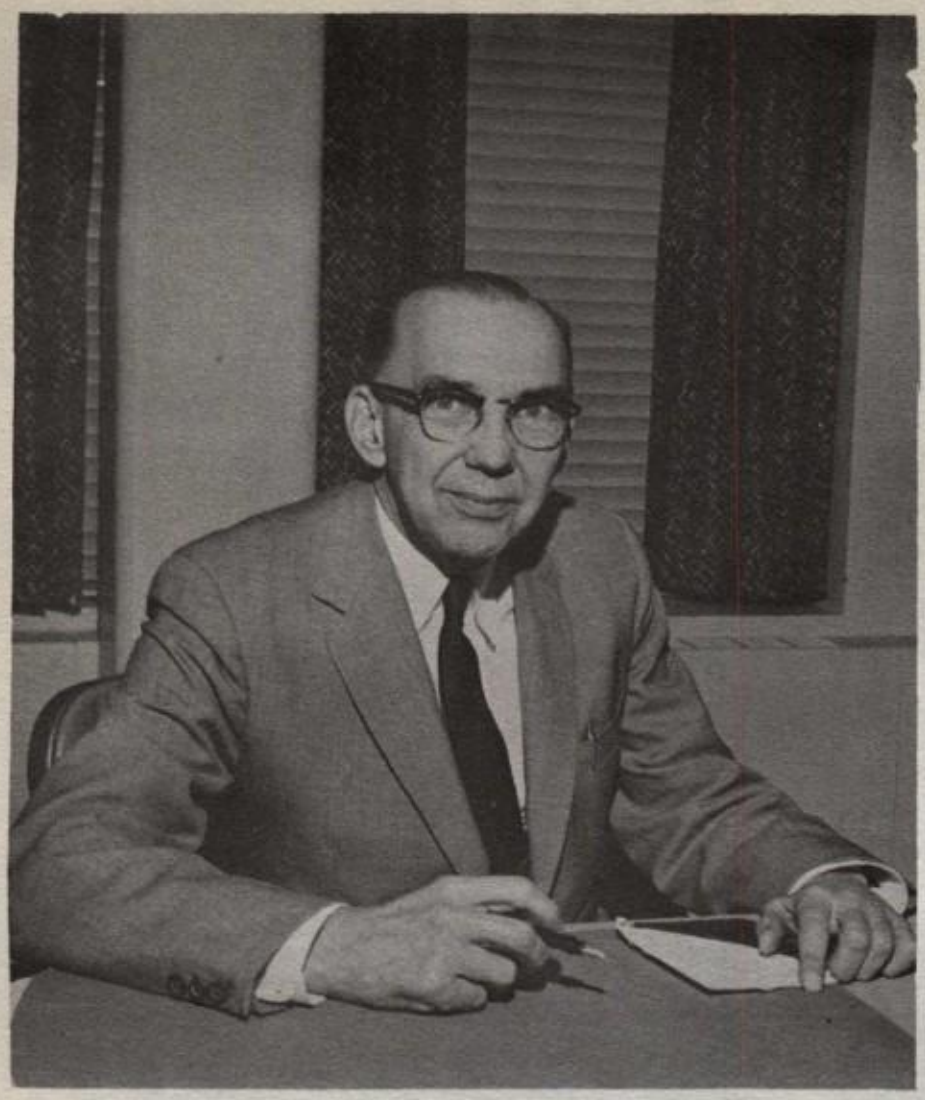
As you leave these hallowed halls, may you, the members of the graduating class of 1961, remember the standards that you have set for yourselves. May these high values always remain as guide-posts for your future days. Today we are moving very fast, tomorrow faster, and in this fast moving age, may high moral value always remain with you.

Do not be bewildered by the present day attempts at reaching the moon or feel a frustration because you cannot be the first to land. Remember your fellow man and be of service to him. Hitch your wagon to the star of service.

And as your future life unfolds, do not forget us of your youth. Remember us kindly perhaps as homeport in the storms of life. May God always watch over you and protect you and may his grace be at your side.

Leon J. Galloway

Principal



To The Seniors Of The Class Of 1961

How will you go?

Two roads diverge — three roads, four, five — many roads diverge for you and for each, only one can be taken. How will you go? Already some of you have found the answer and have aimed your course in a definite direction, but for most of you there are still many roads — there are still many questions — there are still many answers to seek.

Turn your eyes on each of the several roads and view them carefully. "How will you go?" Will it be through a desire to help others by service of the hands in manual jobs? Will it be through training on the job for the crafts, or through Uncle Sam to the armed services? Will it be through training for the business world or through college to the professions?

Be glad that you are living in an age when you may look down these interesting roads and have a choice of the one you may travel. Take courage in the examples of those who, with vision and determination have gone before you down these very same roads, and remember that when you find the answer to your question, "How will you go?", their spirits will be with you — that you'll "never walk alone".

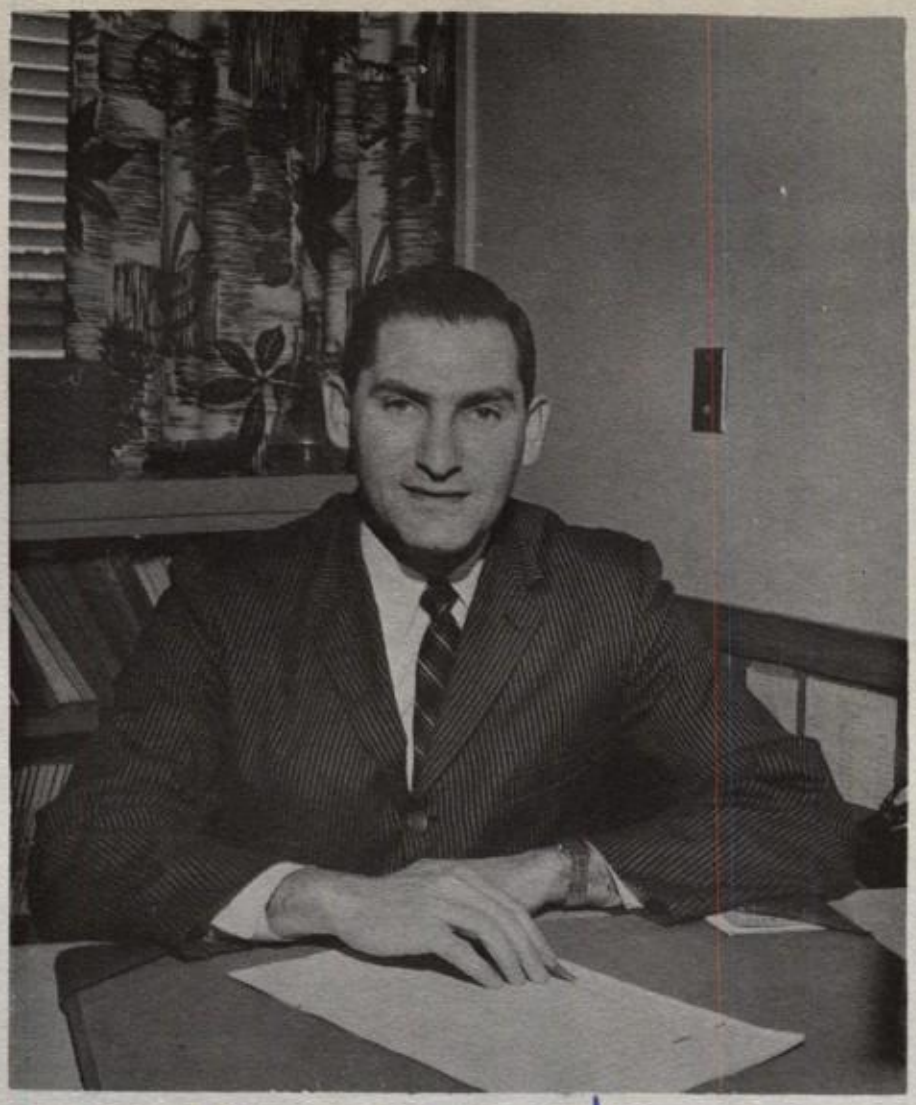
Assistant Principal



Good luck Jo
William Feigin

To The Class Of 1961

It has been written that, "It is only the ignorant who despise education." Many of you entered high school determined to work diligently. To you have come the rewards of a good high school education. Others followed, as do sheep, doing only what was required, and that sometimes reluctantly. Their reward was proportional. A few had completely negative feelings about education, and they lost the way.

We all have the opportunity for self improvement, inherited from our forefathers, in the form of a system of public education available to all who seek it. Today, we find ourselves in a world pregnant with new and ambitious nations. The uninformed, but not ignorant, striving dynamically for their rightful place, seek our aid. Can we afford ignorance? As a nation, can we shirk our responsibility to educate ourselves? Are we not failing in our duty when we do not do all we can to help others help themselves?

Your answers to these questions, and the attitudes and actions that must follow, hold the key to your future. The new crusade is already underway. Join it! With more positive thinking, using as your guidepost the converse of the original thought, "It is only the educated who despise ignorance," you will prosper.

dedication

Our entire school community, students, teachers and alumni, have been recently saddened by the untimely passing on of Mildred E. Clark, teacher of home making. Miss Clark came to Hicksville High School thirty-three years ago. She served the school faithfully and well for many happy years. Her many students respected and admired her as teacher and friend. All will remember her devotion to our school, her quiet, unassuming and friendly manner, the sterling qualities of her character. All deeply mourn her loss.

In token of her high esteem and admiration, we the members of the class of 1961, affectionately dedicate this volume to the memory of Mildred E. Clark.

SENIORS

The seniors of 1961 have been fortunate in having the team of Cotsonas, Cierski, Anselmo and Henningsen to direct the affairs of the class. The Magazine drive, the Senior Ball, the Washington trip, to mention a few highlights have all been managed with the great satisfaction of all of us seniors. We appreciate the time and effort our class officers have so faithfully spent in our behalf.

SENIOR TRIP 1961 ---------- I

Flash --- March 18, 1961 --- Washington Trip a Success --- Stop --- Senior Class returns--- Stop --- Hicksville High School activities resume normal pattern.

The Class of 61's Senior Trip was a high spot in the Senior Activities of the Year. It added a memorable finishing touch to four great years at Hicksville High and set the stage for graduation in June. We the members of the first trip oriented Washington for the members of the second trip. They didn't know what to expect from us (and we came up with a few surprises), but when the other trip arrived they were on guard. We will all remember Mr. Rusch and his lost voice, Munch's chain gang, the girls on the first trip, the "City of Norfolk", Annapolis, Jamestown, Fort McHenry, Williamsburg, Yorktown, and of course Washington (which will never be the same). It was a fabulous trip, accenting fun and excitement to the fullest extent.

INGTON, D. C. MARCH 1961

HOME AGAIN

What the first contingent of the class of 1961 did not finish in Washington, the second one did! We saw everything from Nassau to the Patomac, and beyond. The trips by bus, rail, boat, and on foot all added up to a trip without parallel in our school days. We are grateful that we could have such an opportunity. We are thankful to Mr. Galloway and all the rest who worked with us and for us to make this grand trip possible.

SENIOR BALL

Ramayana, the Class of 1961's interpretation of the Senior Ball, was one of the most enjoyable events of the school year. The members of the graduating class surely thank the committee for their efforts.

The Ball took place on February 18 and the music was provided by Paul Muro's Band. The exciting vivacious Jacqueline Travers was a deserving queen. Diana Urena and Joyce Asaro were ladies in waiting. To Highlight the evening, entertainment by Mike Rosenwasser and Denise Sepanski provided the finishing touch to a perfect evening.

Publishing a yearbook is a new experience to some of us. However, with the fine cooperation of all our staff under the editorship of Bob Berger, it has been done harmioniously and well. All have worked together willingly as an efficient team. Many have worked after school and during lunch periods to accomplish their special tasks. The art staff, the business staff, the writers, the typists, and all the rest have carried on the work in a very commendable manner. Special thanks are due tne boys in our own print shop, who have shown a special pride and interest in this undertaking. We are indebted to them for their efforts and skill, and particularly for their genuine interest in our yearbook.

The Comet newspaper staff has turned out ten eight-page issues this school year. Louise Perl and her assistant editors, Karen Anderson and Pat Appelman, have been enthusiastic and capable in directing the staff and leading our team of reporters and staff members. We have been able to publish our school newspaper paper without resorting to advertising. We know of no other school paper that does this. We are extremely proud of the fact that our paper is printed by our own print shop, under the direction of Mr. Adams, Chairman of the Department. They have been most cooperative and capable; and our staff members are appreciative of their genuine interest and efforts.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The All School Council, composed of representatives of all homerooms, organizations, and activities in the school, has made vast progress this year in gaining the respect and recognition from the students as well as the faculty and administration in their role on the student government. Due to the hard work and enthusiasm of many of its members and under the direction of its faculty advisor, Mr. Raymond Rusch, and its president, Kathy Kapsol, the activities of the council have seen great success this year. The Student Activity Ticket, sponsored by the council for the third year, was highly successful and offered to its buyers many improved features. Receipts from the SAT sale provided many clubs with additional funds they needed and a worthy senior with a $600. SAT Scholarship. Along with the now annual projects of Adopt-A-Family, sending of representatives to the Leadership Training Institute at Syracuse University, the Inash Dance, Dress-Up Days, student run assemblies, and Student Council pins, the Council also this year undertook the project of revising the Student Handbook.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Future Teachers of America Club, under the guidance of Miss Mildred Clark, has done much to stir up interest in the teaching profession not only among the members of the club but in the whole student body. Through its many activities, the members of the club, receive ample opportunity to decide whether or not teaching is the field for which they are best suited.

This year the F.T.A. has gone to the Long Island Future Educators workshop at Baldwin. During this season many speeches and discussions on teaching and colleges took place and ideas for future activities were discussed with members of other F.T.A. Clubs. Among its other activities and projects, the F.T.A. has again participated in a teacher apprentice season and teacher-helper activity in the high school.

A ROMAN TEMPLE IN THE LATIN QUARTER

An authentic model of the pediment of a Greco-Roman temple provides the proper atmosphere now for the study of Latin at Hicksville Senior High School. Built in the school's carpentry shop by four Latin students working after school under the direction of Grattan E. Dockrell, carpentry shop teacher, the pediment is flanked by two columns also constructed in the shop. The rear bulletin board underneath the temple contains three huge maps made previously by Latin students -- the center one that of the Roman empire and the smaller ones of the city of Rome and of Caesar's Gaul.

The classroom itself, which Samuel A. Goldberg, Latin teacher in the school, has named the Quarta Latina or Latin Quarter, has many other features that help develop the proper atmosphere. The door to the room is covered with marble contact to simulate a Roman arch and carved into it is the room number -- CCCXVIII. Within the room are regalia of all kinds, such as spears, a Roman standard, a sword, a shield, helmets, models of a Roman house and Roman temple, a Roman artillery, a ship, constumes, a wax tablet, pottery, and even a cross section of the Appian Way showing how it was built.

In front of the room are posters containing, of course in Latin, the Star Spangled Banner, the pledge of allegiance, the school song, and the school's fotoball song. A weather report in Latin can also be found there, with reports changed daily, Latin mottoed which are changed weekly, and a monthly calendar as the Romans had it. A map showing the route of Jason's Argonauts, with stops represented by tiny electric lights, hangs on the wall. Before Christmas, Latin Christmas cards made by students covered the side bulletin board and surrounded the maps on the rear wall. At present reports, charts, and Roman calendars have replaced these.

Completely the work of students, the reglia, posters, and art work have make Latin students helped make Latin anything but a "dead" language at Hicksville. No wonder Latin students like to "live it up" in the only Latin Quarter with a Roman temple.

SPANISH CLUB

The Spanish Club was very active this year. February 25, the Club journeyed to New York City, and under the guidance of Mr. Marrocco, visited the Hispanic Museum and later a Spanish restaurant for dinner.

The club enjoyed several films dealing with the Hispanic world. Films seen were, "Vamos al Peru", in Spanish, and Madrid, "Wings over Central America", and "Wings over South America", in English. Recordings of Spanish music and a guest speaker were also enjoyed.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club was under way early this year, planning many activities, both cultural, and social. All our projects were fascinating and enjoyable.

We enjoyed films on French life and customs, on the best-known edifices and monuments in France. We also invited guests to speak about their own experiences in France.

For the finale of our years' program, we took a trip into New York City and among other things enjoyed dinning at a French restaurant.

GERMAN CLUB

Sue Froehly, George Leek, Bill Chumyk, Fred Canover, Vic Theiss, Dotty Christ.

At the beginning of the year the German Club, or the Deutsche Verein, was established through the combined effort of its new officers and the club's sponsor Mr. Eric Hirst. The meetings of the club were divided into two parts. The first part was devoted to the business at hand and to planning for the future, the second was set aside for games and refreshments. These games and especially the refreshments insured a good attendance at all meetings and greater participation by all the club's menbers.

The German Club made it a practice to go to a German movie in Huntington the last Wednesday of every month. Afterwards the club would always stop for refreshments. Early in December they went on their first roller skating outing. It proved so successful that they planned to go either ice skating or bowling. It was expected that there would be a big party in April. To bring the year to a close the German Club organized a Gala beach party complete with a speed boat and Skiis.

MATH CLUB

The Math Club, under the direction of Dr. Basil Warner, has just completed its year long series of meetings held every Tuesday. These sessions were to prepare its members, who made up the Hicksville High School math team, for the six 1960-1961 Math Meets, held among the teams of the sixty members of the Nassau County Mathematics League. Abstract questions on various branches of math are asked at these monthly meetings. A member of the teams who answers six or more questiond correctly will receive a special pin; the highest scorer on each team receives a book of tables; the highest scorers in all Nassau County receive slide rules as prizes.

The Math Club also sent representatives to participate in the Pi Mu Epsilon competition for a mathematics scholarship at New York University.

Under the watchful eye of Miss Jenkins, members of the advanced classes in business training are busily engaged.

The Business Department in Hicksville High School provides a broad economic training for more intelligent participation in the social, political, and business life of the community. Students are prepared to function intelligently in their economic contacts and economic competency.

Students are prepared for specific business occupations. Courses in retailing, salesmanship and merchandising contribute to an understanding of how to become successful owners and managers of small individually owned business enterprises, and develop the ability and skill necessary for efficient performance in the various distributive occupations.

Training in stenography and secretarial practices develop those skills required to perform successfully the duties of stenographers and secretaries.

In office practice training, the use of office machines and equipment is provided to develop efficiency on a variety of machines.

The department endeavors to provide students, especially those who will not go on to college, the means of earning a livelihood. The making of a living has become increasingly important, and success in economic pursuits has become the key to successful living in its broadest sense.

BAND COUNCIL

The band council is the orginization which determines the activities and the standards for band members. In addition, the council keeps a scrapbook of all band activities, an alumni scrapbook, and a curriculum file for music students in various colleges.

SOCIAL DANCING

For six weeks of the school year the Physical Education Department of Hicksville High engaged in teaching social dancing. It is the intent of the gym teachers to show their students the correct way of dancing.

During the course of study the students were taught the Polka, Waltz, Tango, Trot Fox, Lindy and other such dances. After the six weeks many students found that they really enjoyed themselves while dancing. Because of this cource many more students attended the various school dances throughout the year and were able to meet their fellow class-mates, some of wnom, they might not otherwise know.

Everyone appreciated the opportunity of having this instruction, which was one more valuable contribution to our high school days.

LEADERS CLUB

The Girls Leaders Club of Hicksville High School is an organization to which girls are elected for scholarship and citizenship combined with outstanding leadership in Physical Education. In order to qualify as a Leader, nominees must be elected by 80% of the members of the club.

During the past year the club sponsored its tenth annual Winter Carnival, sold programs at football games, and raised money from cake sales, The proceeds from these activities aid in providing a scholarship for a worthy senior girl who is college bound. The club also sponsored alumni games in various sports to welcome back past members.

A hearty "thank you" is extended to Miss Gloria Franke, faculty advisor, and Ellen Eichler, president, for their capable guidance in making 1960-1961 an active and progressive year for the Leaders Club.

The hall cops are of great assistance to all of us in many ways, particularly in keeping everyone in motion as classes pass, in helping to avoid congestion anywhere about the corridors, and, when necessary, in reminding all of us of the several rules and regulations regarding our conduct about the school.

The fire squad swings into action at all our fire drills and whenever occasion requires their services. They are alert dependable "minute men" ready to help us empty the building in record time when called upon to do so.

FIRE SQUAD

The air squad is also a most essential organization ready at the signal to act quickly and efficiently at the sound of the air alert, to keep us on our toes when an air alarm drill is called.

The Comet Shop first opened two years ago. To students of retailing the operation of the shop gives experience in mechanics of running a retail store. In general it is a school supply store but this year we have had on sale items that makes nice gifts.

Mr. Murphy has helped us to build our little shop from a book room to prosperous, school enterprise, run by students.

This year our retailing group joined a National retailing club known as the Distributive Education Clubs of America. The purpose of the D.E.C.A. is to bring together students from other schools for retailing contests. Our school had fifteen students enter the contest in display, advertising, radio script writing for merchandising, price guessing, and fabric identification.

INTERMEDIATE BAND

This is the first year that HHS has had an intermediate band. Combined with the advanced band, it performed for Kennedy and Nixon when each presidential candidate campaigned in this area, in the halftine shows at football games, in the festival of bands at the Long Island Fair, at the Statler Hotel for the New York State P.T.A. convention, in the Memorial Day Parade, and the graduation exercises. The Intermediate Band performed independently at various assemblies, including the Christmas assembly, in N.Y.S.S.M.A., and in the Spring Concert

The same high standards that are found in the advanced band exist in the intermediate band. The difference being that it is on a lower level of technique, but providing a stepping-stone to the advanced band.

"THE GOOD OLD DAYS"

The 1960-61 Dramatics Season opened with "The Good Old Days," our Annual Variety Show. As the name implies, the show was centered around the vaudeville life between 1890 and 1920 bringing back to the stage such immortals as George M. Cohan, Sophie Tucker, and Clara Bow.

Cast in the leads were Allan Just as George, Denise Sepanski as his sister, Nancy Sherman as his mother, Sal Mistretta as his father, Ken Henkel as Mr. Deakon, Dorothy Traub as Clara Bow, Dave Yigdal as Francis X Burns, and Dick Osborne as Mr. Goldstone.

"The Good Old Days", directed by our own "Mother" Fletcher, will long be remembered as one of the high spots in the theatrical history of Hicksville Senior High School.

VOCATIONAL

Second row, front to rear: Fred Marando, Teddy Urban, Bob Gleason.

ADVANCE PRINTING CLASS

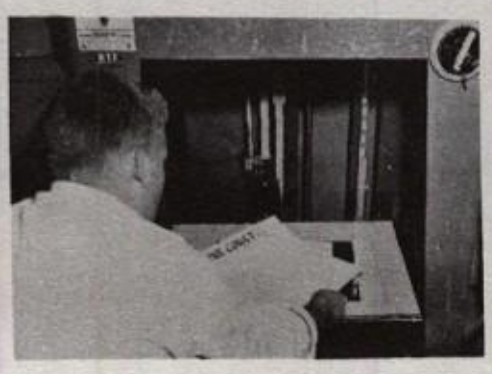
The boys in the Print Shop are under the direction of Mr. C. Ray Adams, the shop instructor and the head of the Vocational department. The majority of the boys are three year men, with just a few two year boys. They are responsible for printing the various passes, business forms for the school district, programs, just to mention a few.

Besides all of this work, which is very time consuming, the boys print our school newspaper and yearbook. They are called "The Comet". The yearbook is a student project, whereby the students set the type and organize it all with a little assistance from Mr. Adams. The Comet newspaper is organized by Teddy Urban. Teddy Urban is a post-graduate. As to the Comet yearbook it is arranged and organized by Bernie Nygren and Hank Guerra, his assistant.

The printing instructor wants to congratulate the following boys on their effort in producing the 1961 yearbook:

Bernie Nygren: coordinator, varitype, proofreader, negative stripper, process camerman.
Hank Guerra: assistant coordinator, negative stripper, process cameraman, proofreader.
Vic Ferrara: photographer, for the newspaper.
Tom Burns: negative stripper, letterpress
Wilbur Kuntzi: multilith, letterpress
Lenny Lombardo: letterpress, negative stripper, linotype
Mike Bisaccio: linotype, pressman, negative stripper.
Robert Gleason: linotype, photography, pressman.
Fred Marando: varitype, process cameraman.
Mike Stephan: offset pressman, plate maker.
Teddy Urban: multilith, negative stripper, organizer of newspaper

Bernie Nygren, coordinator in the print shop and Hank Guerra assistant coordinator want to thank the yearbook staff and Doctor Wilsey, for all their able assistance. Also, we would like to thank Mr. C. Ray Adams for helping us in time of need.



Best of luck.
S. Resnick

AFTERNOON PRINT SHOP

While the Yearbook is mainly a senior responsibility, in our print shop, it could not have been produced in the short time allotted without the able help of the juniors in the afternoon printing class.

To be specific: Dick Ritter's mechanical flair in repairing the breakdowns on the newspaper and Yearbook press, his and James Swallow's efforts in running the press accounts for over half of the printing. Other examples: Stripping of the negatives into the flats in preparation for making plates is a very time consuming operation, actually 30 hours a day of students skill for over 10 weeks is needed for this job. This afternoon class has produced the following strippers: Robert Boccafola, Thomas Bittrolf, Michael McLaughlin, Mike Marielli, John Schmidt and James Swallow. The photography and dark room work in the P.M. on the candid picture pages were handled by Herb Pearce and William White. (These boys stayed after school many hours to finish their work on the pictures, plus taking of the actual photographs of after school activities.) The Process camera work in the afternoon, accounting for nearly one-half of the negatives for this book was done by Thomas Bittrolf. (The dark room boys, 4 crews for both classes haven't seen daylight for over 10 weeks doing the Comet work.) Ernest Visalli has proved adept at both linotype and varitype composition for this book.

The letterpress printers are the unsung heroes of this mammoth effort. They handle all the necessary school printing while the above mentioned boys are working on the Yearbook. They are Robert Pietras, Heidelberg pressman; James Reimer and Stuart Resnick who take the Repros and makeup ads and do the letterpress printing.

Yes, we seniors in the print shop owe the afternoon group a vote of thanks.

There is one senior who is in both classes and actually in school sometimes 7 days a week, Victor Ferrara. He is responsible for the photographs of the popularity poll, many homerooms when the professional photographer wasn't available and at least two-thirds of all candid pages. Yes "Vic" had been an unselfish worker having put in more extra hours than any other student in the shop on the Comet.

BEAUTY CULTURE

Beauty Culture is the art of making women and girls more attractive and beautiful. It includes, in addition to the practice of hairdressing, the scientific care of the face, hands, and body. In many cases when treatments are given in combinationwith medical aid the results are a more healthful as well as beautiful individual. An operator must cultivate good shop deportment, be able to perform all the beauty services that the position calls for in a professional and expert way, and create a good customer-shopowner-operator relationship. In the majority of states it is necessary to be licensed as an all around operator, then if one wishes to specialize in a particular branch it is possible to do so. Our beauty shop gives training that could lead to employment in:

1. The Beauty Shop
2. The Educational Field
3. The Editorial Field
4. The Cosmetic Field
5. The Miscellaneous Field.

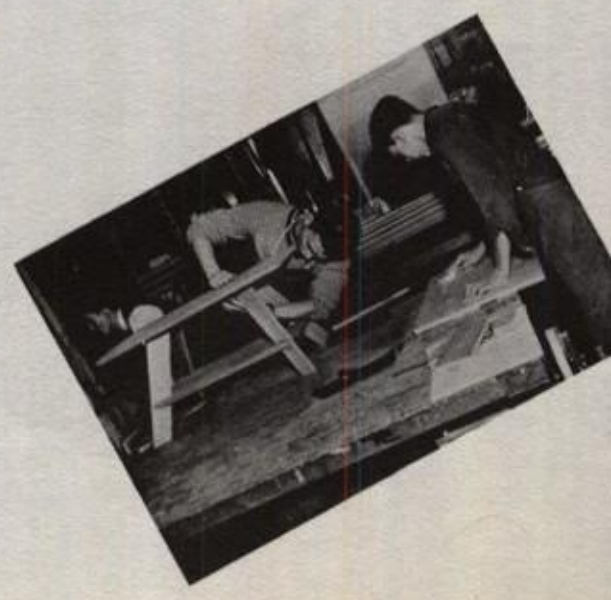
WOOD SHOP

The students in the wood shop began by learning the name and proper uses of the hand tools. After completing a required wood joint, everyone then had an opportunity to choose a piece of furniture to make, preferably one that their mothers suggested and had need of. Before beginning the construction of the project a demonstration was given by the instructor on all of the woodworking machines, stressing very carefully the safety rules to be followed. As always, turning on the wood lathes was very popular, and many nice lamps, bowls, candlesticks, and baseball bats were turned out.



VOCATIONAL WOOD SHOP

In a small way the Metal Shop represents the entire metal working industry, The boys are taught the use of metal working tools and learn the processes used in the industry. In learning these processes and the use of tools the students make at least one project in each of the following areas: machine shop, sheet metal, art metal, foundry, wrought iron; and work with such metals as steel, copper, iron, aluminum, and zamac for foundry work.

The Industrial Arts Metal Shop prepares the boys for many of the v ocational shop areas. The instructor is Mr. Francis D. Ganley.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach James Grantham, in his first year at the helm, led the Comets to a 3-5 record, an improvement over last year. In league play, the Comets were 2-3, and finished in a tie for third place. Highlighting the season was the 14-7 victory over traditional rival Garden City.

The coaches agreed that the two most valuable players this year were Bob Cerone and Brad Jaworski.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL

Coach Chet Jaworski's sophomores started off well, against first-rate competition finishing with a 2-3-3 record.

Ray Strassburger was the big gun for the J.V. Comets, scoring most of their touchdowns. Bob Thurer and Joe Kussoff played quarterbock. Other standouts were Frank VanCyse, Eddie Kramer, Billy Hoop and Eddie Farone.

VARSITY SOCCER

Hicksville's soccer team finished a most successful season with a 6-0 whitewashing of last-place Mineola. The win put the Comets in third place. Their league record was 4-2-4 (12 points). First place Garden City had fourteen points and second place Port Washington had thirteen points.

Hicksville, doormat of the league during the past few years, suddenly came into its own this year, taking games from Garden City, Syosset, Island Trees, Clark, and Mineola. All year, the Comets showed a superior brand of team play and sportsmanship, with only two one-goal losses marring an otherwise unbeaten season.

VARSITY AND JUNIOR VARSITY FIELD HOCKEY

This year the Varsity and Junior Varsity girls hockey teams of Hicksville High competed in a Play-day Tournament and against the related teams of the five other high schools. Our Varsity teamwon one game, lost one and tied the remaining three. The junior varsity lost two, tied two and won one of the five games they played.

This year hockey season ended on November 6 when the combined efforts of both teams tied the Alumnae who came back to challenge us. It was a rough game with Mary Calosons, Fran Reganota, Betty Ann Caesar, Miss Trenka and others playing against us. The Alumnae even had Irvars Bemberis to cheer them on.

Training for Sports night —
Practice makes perfect!

P R O P H E C Y

As we look into the sea of success, the ripples bring forth a vivid picture of the Senior class of Hicksville High in 1981. Many years have passed since our memorable days back at old H. H. S., but the years have not changed the individual characteristics of many of the alumni.

What . . . . . a woman Speaker of the House! Yes, Kathy Kapsol's done it again and next door in the Senate chamber Teddy Reich is presenting the longest filibuster in the history of Congress. Throughout the nation, Mike Cotsonas is campaigning for the presidential election, under the direction of campaign manager Fran Wallach.

The next picture that comes into focus is that of our own community, Hicksville. At the local Women's Club meeting, Alice McIntosh is planning another one of her spectacular balls and at a nearby elementary school Joyce Gabrielsen and Volena Henningsen are educating their students by teaching them songs such as "Black Team Bred", and "Orange is our Color". Yes the school system is overflowing with many graduates of Hicksville High . . . . . Ellen Eichler is now head of the Physical education department, at our old alma mater and there's Paula Knight creating a whirlwind of excitement for the handsome bachelor teachers, aside from teaching her classes their Math formulas, of course. We even have familiar faces in the local churches of the community. Richie Krogmann, who is now a pastor, is signaling to Dorothy Christ, organist and choirmaster, to start the services.

A brief ride will take us to the dazzling city of lights, New York, where Allan Just is a star of a hit musical under the direction of our own Ken Henkel. In the heart of the city is the newly erected "Comet" building under the excellect management of Stanley Neuhaus. Over at Sach's Fifth Avenue, Bunny Miller is the head buyer for the exclusive house of fashion and of course we couldn't miss the smiling face of Tom Farrell, super salesman of the nation-wide Macy's chain.

Down the street a bit, playboys Bob DeMatteo, Dennis Naso, and Ed Caesar are, naturally, shopping for dates, (some people never change)while Howie Shack, manager of the New York Yankees, is scouting around Hicksville High, home of Yankee pitchers Bob Cerone and Gary Sanossian, for new material for the team. By all means, Caoch Brad Jaworski is showing him his best players. Bobby Casale was recently promoted to the popular position of "runner" by the Old Bay Line in place of the portor who runs around the boat at five o'clock in the morning waking people up. (drat him)

Yesiree, success has come to many of our classmates. Hank Cierski is vice president of something or other (Yup, that's our Hank), while nurses Rene Inglis and Angel Anselmo are doctoring up Allan "Einstein" Foster after one of his recent inventions backfired. It is not hard to find traces of Jackie Travers, covergirl for Vogue and glancing through the paper we see a Vic Tanny advertisement featuring Gail Houghton 6 inches taller and 20 pounds heavier (they said it couldn't be done). Howie Zuckerman is still trying to catch up to his brother Nate . . . . . that is, in height, and the gang is still gathering at Goldstein's house primarily for educational purposes(???????).

From across the ocean we hear that Louise Perl is studying Russian in order to publish a paper in the native tongue. Kathy Graw has just bought out the Arthur Murray chain and along with society gals Mary O'Shaughnessy and Joan Sabatella plan to televise the greatest parties ever. Why . . . . . there's Barbara Weber and Diana Urena on the "City of Norfork" gabbing about the greatest senior trip (the least they could have done was to make it to a class reunion). Denny Mruz has just bought out the local Sweet Shop, and can you imagine . . . . . Lois Werneburg is the waitress.

As the tide rushes in and the mist of night fades away the future we find ourselves back at Hicksville High, in 1961 and graduating seniors.

We, the class of 1961, in the village of Hicksville, county of Nassau, state of New York, being of questionably sound mind, memory and understanding, do make, publish, and declare the following as our Last Will and Testament:

License no. 4599-CN wills to Mr. Leeb fifty "no parking" signs. Paula Knight wills her bottle of Miss Clairol no. 40 to Jeanne Knight, her sister, if she is willing to use it. Joanne Hill and Pat Hiscox leave their flashlight from room 7 on the City of Norfolk to the boys who find it in their room. Joyce Asaro wills to Mr. Holmes a free instruction course of cha-cha lessons. Burt Hauk wills his absentee record! Danny Burke wills his plaid ties and striped shirt combinations to the next senior with good taste. Pat Spinelli, Linda Sher, Bunny Miller, Alice McIntosh, Gerry Kirk, Marie Eisman, and Marie Torres will the little yellow service squad pail of sixth period lunch to the Future Garbage Collectors of America. Vinnie Luna wills 12 rolls of crepe paper to the needy ones (Juniors).

The class of '61 wills a stainless-steel pointer to Mr. G. Bill Canham is not willing to leave his deck of cards and address book-just in case he needs them next year! Jim Edwardson wills to Mr. Hirst a mechanic to put his car back together. John Partheymuller wills his seat in Mr. Murphy's class to anyone who can take his jokes. Louise Clark wills a suit of armor to Hall Cops in the main hall next year. Volena Henningsen leaves the debts that resulted from her spending spree as the senior class treasurer. Fifth period lunchroom wills a megaphone to Mr. Danna. The occupants of room 32 of the second Washington trip will one soda stained rug, 4 used water pistols, 10 broken lipsticks, 1 free hot and one free cold shower, 1 flooded bathroom, 2 slightly used beds, 1 broken glass, 3 towels overboard, 1 lamp bolted to the table, 2 easy in and out windows, 14 packs of used cigarettes and one missing key?Dorothy Gallahue wills her cast to anyone crazy enough to go over the buck. Barbara Governale dedicates her unpublished book, "You Too Can Understand the Mysteries of the Differential and the Torque Converter",to Mr. Resnick.

Marty Cohen leaves to Judy Kaufman 20 unused passes to the fourth floor swimming pool. Mike Cotsonas wills 1 empty "beverage tin" to Bethlehem Steel. Teddy Reich leaves his autographed photo of President John F. Kennedy to Mr. Rusch. Roz Blue leaves her place in Marching band to a clarinet player who likes to march between two bass drums. Dr. Moser's English classes leave to him a book entitled Ever Since The Dawn of History...;To Mr. S. Saunders, we leave two more musicians who need a sympathetic gym teacher . Bonnie Scharr wills her position as captain of Black Team apparatus to any girl who has enough lineament to take it. Bob Wilson wills his Fiat to any sophomore who can fit in it. Sue Schwartz wills her science fair coke machine to Sheilia Goldstein if she wants to meet people. Brad Jaworski wills his red, white and blue striped gym shorts to Chipper. Joyce Gabrielsen wills her hall-cop post to any brave junior who can stand "Cuddles" and Mr. Rosen's daily persecutions.

Clem Baldwin wills her physics seat to anyone brave enough to take the chance of being electrocuted. Kathy Kapsol wills her gavel and all the headaches accompanying it to any junior brave enough and lucky enough to get them. Bob Casale wills his stamina to a junior crazy enough to have a girl who is president of the Student Council, Captain of Varsity Cheerleaders, in National Honor Society, Basketball, Hockey, Sportsnight, etc.,etc. Helen Biser wills her hall locker and lunch-eating mouse to a junior girl who wants to lose a few pounds. Harvey Holmes wills 1 pair of combat boots back where they came from.

Frank Norton wills his place as Manager of the Varsity Basketball team to anyone who wants to cut oranges and open chewing gum. The Senior Class leaves to Mrs. Olson in the guidance office a thousand little helpers to get those horrid transcripts. Mike Brown wills his English accent to Mrs. Easer. Allan Just wills his spot on the Hicksville High School's stage to the ham of the class of '62. Joe Pitchell wills to any late comer to the basketball team the privilege of warming. the bench. Pat Krywak wills her twirling baton to any junior who wants black and blue marks. Dave Yigdal wills his leotards to any junior who thinks he can pour himself into them. All those in Spanish 4 will a box of pink kleenex, a bottle of Bufferin and a "God bless you" to Senor Morrocco. Chris Thiel and Ed Gianelli will one cannon ball to the Hicksville High School trophee case. Dave Goldstein andArtie Clemenz will a room full of balloons to next year's senior trip.

Nancy Sherman unhappily wills to the music department one flute in good condition (except for the F sharp key) after three faithful years of service. Bob Schultz wills a telephone pole half each to Mr. Wellon and Mr. Resnick. The mixed chorus leaves an unbreakable baton and a set of untearable music sheets to Mr. Goleeke. Alan Foster leaves his Math regents conflicts to the junior nutty enough to take Solid Geometry and Advanced Algebra at the same time. Dorothy Traub wills to next year's senior play student director the grueling job of cleaning up after the all-night cast party. Robert Berger wills one stable bottle of aspirins and a bottle of arsenic(for emergencies only) to next year's Comet Yearbook Editor. Ann Cassese and Mary O'Shaughnessy will their closet on the "'City of Norfolk"' to any junior who has no fear of claustrophobia. Tony Petritis and Skip Murphy will to any junior who can make the ribbing the title of "Leader's of the People". Barbara Kleiss and Ginny Kolenik will their "Tweet" to Sue DeGroot and Bev Harrigan. Kathy Graw leaves her title as the peppiest cheerleader to Kathy Caesar. Aileen O'Campo wills her record of being late every morning to any junior who is willing to face Miss Jenkin so early.

Dotty Werthessen and Rosemary Wheeler will cabin N. 37 to any junior who like living in a closet and enjoy late company. Alice McIntosh wills her hall cop post in front of Mr. Naso's room to anyone who can afford to feed him. Mike Bisaccio wills his Inquiring Photographer Column to Paul Bady. Fred Canovor grants to any anxious basketball player the ability to jump off the bench and enter the game with two seconds left to play. Jeff Rock wills nutrition experiments to hungry juniors taking advanced Biology. Helen Weidhoft and Dorothy Christ leave the piano in room 178 to anyone who can eat and play at the same time.

We, the class of 1961, do hereby nominate and designate Principal Leon J. Galloway executor of this, our Last Will and Testament.

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

(sung to Dearie)

by Nancy Sherman and Allan Just

Dearie, do you remember when we first came to Hicksville High?
My hasn't the time gone by!
There we were in search of our classrooms.
Seniors brushed us aside (weren't they miserable?)
My Dearie, who'd ever think that we would end up in their Old Shoes,
Giving the sophomores, sophomore blues!
Dearie, life's been cheerie,
In those good old days gone by
We've had excitement
We've had adventure
Since that first day we saw Hicksville
High.

Dearie, do you recall when science lab had a little blaze,
Short skirts the latest craze,
Dirty sneakers walked down the hallway,
Past those chemistry doors (Oh! the odor it was - - - - - - - - - -)
Dearie, remember Williamsburg, its gardens and quaint old shops,
Mr. Rusch doing the Hula-Hop?
Dearie, life's been cheerie
In those good old days gone by
We've had excitement
We've had adventure
Since that first day we saw Hicksville
High.

Dearie, the Senior Ball postponed because of a little snow,
And next month came Romeo.
All the time we made up for bombscares
Better not litter the hall (Student Improvement Board)
Dearie, athletic tasks for girls
And gym homework here to stay
While boys loaf the days away.
Dearie, life's been cheerie
In those good old days gone by
We've had excitement
We've had adventure
Since that first day we saw Hicksville
High

Just considering the memories,
The Memories that we have
We'll carry our separate ways
Recalling all our high school days
Dearie, life's been cheerie
In those good old days gone by
We've had excitement
We've had adventure
And now it's time to leave Hicksville High.

MISS BURT RETIRES

Miss Ruby M. Burt, head of the department of foreign languages, will retire from teaching this June, after thirty-nine years of loyal service to our school and community.

Miss Burt came to Hicksville High School in September 1922. There were approximately one hundred students in the high school, then located in the Nicholai Street school. The population of Hicksville was about 7000.

Miss Burt first taught all Latin and French classes. In her home room were all the seniors, juniors and sophomores. There were only five in that first graduating class. In the third year the high school classes occupied the new building, now the Junior High.

Miss Burt taught parents of students now in school and also had in her classes several of our present teachers, including Miss Wetterauer, Mr. Gouse, and Mr. Naso. Later Mr. Munch and Mr. Rusch were in her homeroom.

All who have known Miss Burt and have been associated with her over the years have been especially privileged. Her many, many students remember her as a patient, devoted, and understanding teacher. Her countless friends hold her in highest esteem, as a person of gentle grace and dignity. The senior class and our entire school community wish Miss Burt many years of happy retirement.

DR. WALLACE E. LAMB RETIRES

Dr. Wallace E. Lamb, Superintendent of Schools, has announced that he will retire from public school administration and the Hicksville public school system at the end of this school year. Dr. Lamb came to Hicksville seven years ago. During that time he has developed an educational program that has brought much credit to this community. He has fostered an exceptionally fine understanding between the schools and the community.

Dr. Lamb graduated from Clark University with the A. B. degree, received the M. A. degree from State Teachers College, and the Ed. D. degree from Syracuse University. He has been a public school administrator for thirty-three years. He has been a member of the National Association of School Administration, National Council for Social Studies, Member Regents Examination Committee, and State Regents Committee for Curriculum Revision, and many others of like nature. He was educational consultant for Educational Facilities Laboratories of the Ford Foundation. Dr. Lamb is author of "American History", "New York and Its Communities", "The Lake Champlain and Lake George Valleys", "Community Planning in a Democracy", "A Council History of Education", and numerous other books and publications. He will always be remembered as a leader in the field of education, an understanding scholar, an able leader, a wise and competent administrator, and a public-spirited citizen, who has won the admiration and respect of all who know him.

The following is quoted from Dr. Lamb. "Nothing could have been accomplished without the will of Almighty God from Whom come all good and perfect gifts. I am truly grateful for all the good that has unfolded in Hicksville while I have occupied the post of Superintendent of Schools. May God continue to bless you."

Wallace E. Lamb
Superintendent

MISS HARRIET A. SPINK

Miss Harriet A. Spink, supervisor of vocal music, is retiring from the Hicksville school system this June, after thirty-one years of loyal service. When Miss Spink first came to our schools, she was the entire music department, vocal and instrumental, in the two elementary schools, as well as the junior and senior high schools. Mr. Charles Gouse, now supervisor of instrumental music was in classes of Miss Spink all the way through elementary school and high school. She has had in class also numerous sons and daughters of her former students.

Miss Spink majored in music at Wellesley, where she received the B.A. degree. Later she received the B.S. degree in music education from Ithaca, and also the M.A. degree in music education from N.Y.U. She has participated in many music workshops, including the National Music Camp at Interlocken, Mich. She spent one summer at the American Conservatory in Chicago and two summers at the Royal Conservatory in Toronto, Canada. She is a member of the National Association of Teachers of Singing, of the New York Singing Teachers Association, and of the Pi Lambda Theta, a society in the field of education. Before teaching, Miss Spink was a free lance singer for ten years, engaged as soloist in churches and synagogues and professional choruses in the New York City area.

Miss Spink will engage in private voice teaching and will hold private classes in Carl Orff music for children in her home. She also plans to have some free time for travel. This summer she will spend in the British Isles and Norway.

Our best wishes go with Miss Spink. Her many students and all her colleagues have long admired her qualities of superb musicianship and will long remember their pleasant associations with her.

To the Class of '61,

We have come a long way since that first day we entered the high school three years ago. We have not only gained more information in our pursuit for knowledge but have matured into young men and women. We have been developing ourselves to enter into an ever-changing world, a world that will depend upon us and our abilities.

Now a time has come when many of us must part and go our separate paths. Knowing the kind of people that comprise our class, I am sure that each will be able to accomplish worth-while aims. As long as each individual works hard and sees satisfaction in the gains he makes, his efforts will bring their due reward.

I have been very proud to serve as your president and hope that your memories will always be fond of your senior year.

Sincerely,
MICHAEL COTSONAS
